SUPERIOR COURT OF THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA

COUNTY OF LOS ANGELES — STANLEY MOSK COURTHOUSE

FOX NORMANDIE APARTMENTS, LP, Plaintiff, v. DERRICK L. BEVERLY, Defendant.	Trial Case No. 22STUD06657 Appellate Division No. 26APLC00322 Appellant: Derrick LaMont Beverly

NOTICE; NOTICE OF NOTICE; NOTICE OF NOTICE; NOTICE OF PROTECTIVE TENDER AND REQUEST FOR RECORD RECONCILIATION

I. NOTICE AND NOTICE OF NOTICE

PLEASE TAKE NOTICE, NOTICE OF NOTICE, AND NOTICE OF NOTICE that Derrick LaMont Beverly, appearing without counsel, submits this supplemental notice in connection with the appeal from the September 2, 2026 ruling, the September 3, 2026 Notice of Appeal, the October 2, 2026 appellate default notice, and protective submissions reflected in the October 7, 2026 trial court docket.

II. RECORD-DESIGNATION ELECTION

Appellant retains the election of a Statement on Appeal under California Rules of Court, rule 8.837, as the record of oral proceedings, and a Clerk's Transcript under rules 8.831–8.832 as the documentary record. Appellant tenders a corrected APP-103 for evaluation by the clerk and requests association with the appellate matter, not an automatic restart of the statutory deadlines.

III. PROTECTIVE REQUEST

Appellant requests that the clerk receive, endorse, and appropriately route the corrected APP-103 and this notice; associate the October 7 protective submissions with appeal 26APLC00322; and identify any remaining defect concerning the October 2 notice of default. Appellant requests that the appropriate court determine whether the default may be discharged, and does not contend that a clerk's mere receipt of these papers constitutes discharge.

IV. SERVICE AND DOCUMENTARY RESERVATIONS

An Outlook export shows appellant's October 9, 2026 email sent at 2:28 p.m. to ada@loacs.com, with copies to five additional addresses; the export lists five attachment descriptions. The record does not independently establish receipt, consent to e-service, contents of each attachment, or statutory service completion. Any One Legal completion certificate must be separately produced and checked.

V. REQUEST FOR ACTION

Appellant requests acceptance for filing if procedurally proper or a specific written identification of any filing defect. This notice preserves—without adjudicating—the classification question arising from a trial-court docket identifying general-jurisdiction unlawful detainer while the notice of appeal is docketed as limited civil case "U3."
