From Derrick LaMont Beverly <derniercrilamont@yahoo.com>

NOTICE OF EMERGENCY EX PARTE APPLICATION

Dear Ms. Cordero-Sacks,

Please be advised that I, Derrick LaMont Beverly, Plaintiff in the above-captioned matter, will appear today for an Emergency Ex Parte Application hearing at 1:30 p.m. in the Stanley Mosk Courthouse regarding the case 22STUD06657 (Fox Normandie Apartments, LP v. Derrick LaMont Beverly).

The Ex Parte hearing has been necessitated by urgent and ongoing prejudicial harm caused by a judgment that is now under serious challenge, including allegations of judicial usurpation of authority, lack of valid judicial assignment, and facially void rulings issued without legal jurisdiction. These procedural and constitutional defects continue to inflict irreparable harm on my civil, housing, and due process rights.

I acknowledge the short notice and respectfully point out that the emergency nature of the application arises from newly received documentation confirming critical defects in the assignment and authority of the presiding judicial officer. Immediate court intervention is essential.

This communication shall serve as formal notice to you as opposing counsel under California Rules of Court, Rule 3.1203.

Please govern yourself accordingly.

Respectfully,
